PURPOSE OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

The Ontario Graduate Scholarship (OGS) program is designed to encourage excellence in graduate studies at the master's and doctoral levels.

NUMBER OF SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

For the 2002–2003 academic year, a total of 2,000 scholarships will be awarded. Of these, 60 scholarships will be awarded to students who have been admitted to Canada as visitors with a student visa.

In addition, some of these scholarships, called institutional scholarships, will be awarded to nominated students at selected universities – namely, Brock University, Lakehead University, Laurentian University, Ryerson Polytechnic University, Trent University, and Wilfrid Laurier University. These universities may nominate up to ten students each for the institutional scholarships. Nominated students must pursue their graduate studies at the nominating university. To be eligible, nominees must meet the citizenship requirements, be approved by the selection board, and satisfy all conditions of eligibility. Visitors with a student visa are not eligible for institutional scholarships. For additional information about the institutional scholarships, contact your graduate studies office.

VALUE OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

An Ontario Graduate Scholarship is awarded for one academic year, which may consist of two or three consecutive terms. One-term awards are not granted. For 2002–2003, the value of the OGS is $5,000 per term. Thus, you may receive $10,000 for two consecutive terms or $15,000 for three consecutive terms. The province of Ontario contributes two-thirds of this amount and the university provides one-third.

Your award may begin in May 2002, September 2002, or January 2003.

ELIGIBILITY

You are eligible to apply for an Ontario Graduate Scholarship if you:

- plan to be enrolled full time in an approved graduate program leading to a master's or doctoral degree at an Ontario university that is financially assisted by the government of Ontario (as defined by Ontario Regulation 237/90, as amended). Check with your graduate studies office or the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities to determine if your proposed program is approved;
- are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident (the "landed on" date on your permanent resident document can be no later than November 16, 2001), or have been admitted to Canada with a student visa dated no later than November 16, 2001.

In addition:

- Applicants entering the first or second year of graduate studies at the time of application must have an overall average of at least A-, or the equivalent, on the last 20 one-term/semester courses, or the equivalent, completed.
- Applicants entering the third year or beyond of graduate studies at the time of application must have an overall average of at least A-, or the equivalent, on all graduate courses completed.

Students who are unable to study full time due to a disability are eligible to apply for and hold an OGS award. These students must meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are not eligible to apply if you are a refugee claimant and do not have a student visa.

If you have been determined to be ineligible for funding under the Ontario Student Assistance Program, have defaulted on a Canada or Ontario Student Loan or a loan made under the Ontario Venture Capital Program, or have failed to make satisfactory repayments on an Ontario Student Grant overpayment, you may be ineligible for an OGS award.

Eligibility conditions

The following conditions may affect your eligibility for an OGS award:

- You can receive a lifetime maximum of four years of government-funded student awards. This maximum includes awards offered by the following agencies:
 - the Ontario government, through the Ontario Graduate Scholarship Program,
 - the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC),
 - the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council (NSERC),
 - the Canadian Institute of Health Research (CIHR) (formerly the Medical Research Council).
- You cannot hold a scholarship from SSHRC, NSERC, or the CIHR, or an Ontario Graduate Scholarship in Science and Technology (OGSST) at the same time as an OGS.
- You can receive up to two OGS awards at the master's level. The award is tenable during either one or both of the first two academic years (12-month periods) of a master's degree program, but not after the second year.
- You can receive up to four OGS awards at the doctoral level. The awards are tenable during any of the first five academic years (12-month periods) of a doctoral program, but not after the fifth year.

CONDITIONS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

If you receive an OGS award, you must comply with the following conditions:

- You must be enrolled as a full-time student in an approved graduate program for the tenure of the award. If you withdraw, transfer to part-time status, or fail to complete a term, you will be required to repay the award.
- You may hold one OGS award for either two or three consecutive terms.

- You cannot hold an award for only one term.
- You cannot be enrolled in a qualifying or “make-up” year or be on a paid educational leave or sabbatical.
- You may, though only with your university’s approval, change to another discipline or to another approved program during the tenure of the award.
- You may hold other awards that, together, have a maximum value of $10,000 per year. You may also accept research assistantships, part-time teaching positions, or other employment that does not affect your status as a full-time graduate student. The total time you spend on duties pertaining to employment must not exceed an average of ten hours per week.
- You must notify both your institution and the ministry if you change your mailing address.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

You may submit only one OGS application for the 2002–2003 academic year. The application cannot be photocopied. You do not have to be registered at an Ontario university or enrolled in a graduate program when you apply for an OGS award.

If you are not currently registered, provide your last student number in the student number field.

When completing the Education section of the application form, you must use the discipline names and codes listed at the back of this booklet.

There are different application procedures (1) for applicants who are currently enrolled as full-time students in an Ontario university, (2) for applicants who graduated from an Ontario university at any time between November 16, 2000, and November 16, 2001, and are not currently registered, and (3) for applicants who are not currently enrolled in an Ontario university. If you are a part-time or special student, you may use either of the application procedures identified under (1) or (3) above.

Applicants who are currently enrolled as full-time students in an Ontario university

If you are currently enrolled as a full-time student in an Ontario university, your institution is responsible for processing your application. Please contact your graduate studies office to begin the application process and to find out what procedures you must follow to complete this process.

You must submit your completed application form and all supporting documentation to the graduate studies office or your department at your university.

The ministry has established a deadline date of November 16, 2001. Please note, however, that your institution will set an earlier internal deadline.

It is your responsibility to ensure that your application form and supporting documentation are received by the graduate studies office or your department by their specific deadline date. The Ontario Graduate Scholarship program does not accept incomplete or late applications.

Applicants who graduated from an Ontario university between November 16, 2000, and November 16, 2001, and are not currently registered

If you graduated from an Ontario university between November 16, 2000, and November 16, 2001, and are not currently registered, the institution from which you graduated is responsible for processing your application. You must follow the procedures above for applicants who are currently enrolled as full-time students in an Ontario university.

Applicants who are not currently enrolled in an Ontario university

If you are not currently enrolled in an Ontario university, the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities is responsible for processing your application.

The ministry application deadline date is November 16, 2001. You must submit your completed application form and all supporting documentation directly to the ministry, at the address given on page 8. Please note that reports and transcripts may be sent with the application or sent separately.

It is your responsibility to ensure that your application form and supporting documentation are received by the ministry by the deadline date. Therefore, you should take into account the amount of time needed by the postal service to process and deliver mail. If your application is incomplete or late, you will be disqualified from the competition.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

The following supporting documentation must be submitted with your completed application form or sent separately by the appropriate deadline date:

1. official transcripts of marks for the preceding two full years or the equivalent in full-time academic studies completed up to August 31, 2001;

2. Report 1 from the professor who is most familiar with your work;

3. Report 2 from a professor who is familiar with your work;

Note: Under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, the use of Reports 1 and 2 is mandatory. Other forms or letters will not be accepted as substitutes.

4. a one-page, double-spaced, typewritten list of your significant academic accomplishments – for example, scholarly publications (differentiate between refereed, non-refereed, etc.), patents, conference presentations, and other evidence of scholarly activities, if applicable;
5. if, by the appropriate application deadline date, you are enrolled in or have begun doctoral-level studies: a one-page, double-spaced, typewritten plan of study; or
